Through The Okanagan Valley

(Continued from last week.) Last week's article dealing with the visit of the Alberta and B. C. News-papers' visit to the Okanagan concluded with a description of a visit to Kelowna, on the shores of Lake Okanagan.

After being very hospitably entertained to dinner by the Kelowna Board of Trade the party once more proceeded to Kelowna, and after a couple of hours sail arrived at Sumnerland.

Not much of Sumnerland is to be seen from the water. The buildings come down to the water's edge, and there are only a few houses clustered around the steambank quays. However, a surprise awaits after the party had got into the waiting motor. The steep road ran up through a gorge in the mountains for probably five hundred feet, where the town of Sumnerland was seen on a plateau among the hills, every accessible part of these hills being planted to orchards with pretty houses standing out on the hillside.

Peaches and Peaches
Included in the Sumnerland trip was a visit to one of the fruit packing plants, where nimble fingered girls were busy wrapping and packing peaches. It might be stated here that not all the peaches in the Okanagan Valley were from the fruit trees. Many of them came off the well known family trees, and might be said that they looked good enough to eat.

At Pentiction
After an hour's drive among the hills of Sumnerland the party again arrived back on the steamer, and proceeded to Pentiction, located at the southern end of Lake Okanagan. Here a similar programme was gone through, the newspapers and their guests being driven through the many orchards of that wonderful productive district.

After the drive the party was treated to a corn supper supplemented by cantaloupes with ice cream and other good things, served through the kindness of the Pentiction Board of Trade Municipal Council and Pentiction Herald.

At nine p.m. the steamer left Pentiction for the north end of the Lake, and next morning the party were back in Vernon after a most enjoyable and instructive trip.

For those who are contemplating a holiday in B. C. we would recommend the Okanagan. It is less than two miles from Strathmore, and it offers a complete change from the prairies. The tourist trade being only a side-saline with the people of that district, the rates are not so inflated to the extent that they are in some of the other tourist resorts.

Irrigation and Irrigators
The success of the Okanagan district is entirely based upon irrigation. Without it production on any of the fertile soils would be impossible. Water is brought for great distances at heavy cost, but it is assured crops.

The Marketing Problems
The fruit growers of B. C. are faced with much the same problems as the people of the prairies, the difference being that they are more successful in some extent. But the big competition on the prairie comes from American orchards, the fruit from which is sold at lower prices. The B. C. fruit is on the market, and the B. C. fruit is sold at lower prices. The B. C. fruit is on the market, and the B. C. fruit is sold at lower prices.

Mayor & C.P.R. Thanks

I wish to express my thanks to the citizens of Strathmore for the way in which they cooperated with me in entertaining the Montreal Board of Trade and British Parliamentary party, especially the members of the Strathmore branch, the school children and staff, and those who contributed cars.

G. FRANK BUTLER, Mayor.
CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY
Department of Natural Resources
Calgary, Alta., September 9, 1922.

Mr. G. P. Butler,
Strathmore, Alberta.

Dear Mr. Butler:
When at Winnipeg on Wednesday night, arranged for the Montreal Board of Trade excursion to stop off for an hour and a half at Strathmore, and asked Mr. Hutton to get in touch with you with a view to entertaining them.

On my return this morning, I find that through your good efforts they were entertained royally at Strathmore, and left there with a feeling of friendship toward your town which will not soon fade away. I am so glad I was not able to be with them, but I wish to take this earliest opportunity of expressing my personal appreciation to yourself and the citizens of Strathmore for the kindness which they extended toward the group during their visit there.

Yours Truly,
P. L. NAISMITH, Manager.

Threshing Progress

Threshing commenced last week, though it will be held up for several days by heavy rain on Monday and Tuesday. Grain is turning out well both as to grade and quantity. It is expected that the dry land areas for wheat throughout the district will be about twenty bushels per acre, summer-fallow going as high as thirty bushels per acre in some of the fields already threshed.

Very little irrigated grain has yet been threshed, but grain is practically all cut now under the most favorable conditions.

Grain prices have improved somewhat, but are still low. Corn is now being marketed at elevator throughout the district.

At B. C. is a heavy buyer of prairie products and will be still greater as it develops. It would seem like sound business for buyers to make friends and assist them, especially as our friends to the south have placed heavy tariffs on our grain and beef.

How B. C. Handles Bees
It is a strange commentary on present day provincial politics and morals that whereas in Alberta it is a crime punishable with imprisonment to take a drink of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes, yet in B. C. it is a crime to sell the product of the still and the brewery. But the B. C. people do not seem to be any more intemperate than those of Alberta, even with the facilities afforded them. In fact, we did not see a single drunk during all our visit. The main difference seems to be that liquor is cheaper and better and can be obtained legally, while the profits of the business go back to the people as a whole, instead of as in Alberta to a comparatively few privileged or unscrupulous sellers.

Want Our Goodwill
The people of British Columbia are anxious for the goodwill of the prairie dwellers. They feel that there have been misunderstandings in regard to the wheat and trade which have affected the majority of each. Their marketing problems are much the same as ours, and they want our cooperation.

Many Notables at Strathmore

Montrealers and British M.P.'s Visit on Friday

Strathmore was honored on Friday forenoon by a visit from members of the Montreal Board of Trade and a party of members of the British House of Commons and House of Lords, who with their lady friends are travelling Canada as guests of the Montreal Board of Trade. The trip was organized as a commemoration of the centenary of the institution of Montreal Board of Trade.

Promptly at ten o'clock the special train containing the party pulled up in Strathmore depot, and were greeted by the music of the Strathmore Brass Band. This was apparently a novelty to the visitors who showed evident appreciation of the sound and many cameras were out snapping the bandsmen as they played. A couple of choruses were demanded.

Following this musical overture Mayor Butler welcomed the visitors in a few well chosen words, winding up with the couplet:
Scotland has the Thistle,
England has the Rose,
Strathmore has the C. P. R. Farm,
Where the customer grows.

The weather conditions could not have been better. The sun was shining and the air was warm, and everything contributed to an enjoyable visit.

See Memorial Hall
Thirty-five cars, the majority provided by local citizens, were in waiting at the platform, and the party piled into them. They were first driven up second street through the business section and on past the Memorial Hall, which was greatly admired. They were then driven through some of the residential streets, and the party to the irrigation headquarters of the C. P. R.

Bouquets and Buttonholes
At the headquarters the band was playing at the balcony, and a reception committee of ladies presented to each of the ladies of the party with a bouquet of beautiful flowers, while each of the gentlemen was given a boutonhole, dahlia, carnations, etc., bound with a ribbon bearing the words, "congratulations of Strathmore."

"The Lord Gave Us a Holiday"
When passing the Strathmore public schools the children to the number of over 200, were massed in front of the public school, and with the staff rendered "O Canada" as the visitors passed. This feature greatly pleased the visitors and Viscount Bertie, who was in one of the rear cars, stopped off and shook hands with the children, and congratulated him on the appearance of the schools and of the children. He made the bright suggestion that the children be given a holiday for the remainder of the day which was immediately acceded to. Some of the children were heard to remark, "I don't know when explaining their being home in school hours, that 'The Lord gave us a holiday'." We have every expectation that the local children will grow up with a high respect for the holiday.

Passing through the beautiful grounds at irrigation headquarters, the visitors were taken to the hay and alfalfa fields maintained by the company to serve as feed for the horses on the maintenance staff. While they were there hay was being cut and stacked and some fields of alfalfa were in bloom. A demonstration of practical irrigation was also given. Employees of the company were stationed at various points throughout the field for the purpose of answering questions asked, and the visitors showed their interest by asking many questions of the employees and of the car drivers.

A sheet of printed information and statistics, showing the yields attained locally by irrigation, acreage in the number of acres, etc., was distributed.

etc., was handed to each of the party. The beautiful flower and vegetable gardens, given by Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Kimpton, were the object of much admiration, as was also the huge garden maintained by the company for the supply of vegetables to their camp force, and superintended by Mr. Harry Freeman.

At The Demonstration Farm
Following their visit to irrigation headquarters, the party were then taken over to the demonstration farm where they inspected with much interest the various departments, and the fine herd of Holstein cattle, one of the largest in Canada. Much interest was exhibited in the filling of the silos with sunflowers, which was going on at the time. At the superintendent's house, Mr. Tom Crawford and a fine exhibit of oats, wheat, alfalfa, clover, etc., both irrigated and unirrigated.

Mr. C. H. Hutton, Mr. Brown and Mr. Hutton, who had been invited to the visitors many points, and many questions were asked and answered. The sunflower crop at the farm was being cut while the visit was in progress.

Several members of the Calgary Board of Trade met the party at Strathmore, and traveled with them to the city.

At 11:30 a.m. the party again re-embarked on their special train. It was a most enjoyable visit, and the party returned to the city. The party was met at the city by the Calgary Board of Trade, and the party was met at the city by the Calgary Board of Trade.

Another large party of visitors is to be in Strathmore this afternoon, weather permitting. Representatives of Calgary, to the number of one hundred and seventy-five, will spend the afternoon at the Demonstration Farm at the guests of Messrs. P. L. Naismith and G. H. Hutton. This is the second occasion on which the Rotary Club has visited Strathmore, the last being about two years ago, when a very enjoyable time was spent.

Upset Near Cheadle

There was a Chinese revolution on the main road from Strathmore to Calgary on Sunday afternoon, when a car containing two Chinese, a Chinese Plowery Kingdom overtook near Cheadle corner.

The man strapped underneath but the other George Lee, was cut by the head and hands by broken glass, and was taken to Strathmore Hospital for attention. He was fortunately however, not seriously injured. The car was taken in to Mr. Harold Bell's garage over repairs, having suffered considerable damage.

Liquor Search Is Made

Messrs. Hunter and Brohay, a couple of members of the Provincial Liquor squad came into Strathmore on Saturday, and made an exhaustive search of the premises of a local restaurateur. After a search that occupied over an hour, they found a bottle which the proprietor claimed had not been on his premises at all.

He called these men who were in the dining room at the time as witnesses to the conversation, whereupon one of the liquor sleuths informed them that they were not to be taken into and go into another room. After the liquor men had left the proprietor and the arrested went up to a local notary and swore to depositions regarding the affair.

Interesting developments if a case is based on the simple alleged statement to have been seized are expected.

Firearms Forfeited

At a police court held in the town hall on Thursday evening, Mr. R. H. Hall was fined $10 and costs for having firearms in his possession, he being an alien and not being entitled to have firearms in his possession. The arms taken from Constable Hale consisted of two shotguns and an automatic.

Justices Lambert and Vickery lifted the case. In addition to the fine, the sum of $100, forfeited to the Attorney-General of the province, was taken.

Whatever action he may see fit to take.

The statute under which the charge was laid was passed in 1920, and declares that no one who is not a naturalized British subject can have any firearms in his possession, unless he has a permit for same.

Evidence was given by Mr. Hall that he was not aware that it was an offence to have these guns. Only one belonged to him personally, the others being on loan. Mrs. Hall also made a statement.

Among the distinguished visitors to Strathmore on Friday were Sir Arthur Currie and Lady Currie. Sir Arthur was commander in chief of the Canadian Forces in France during the last two years of the Great War and while in town renewed acquaintance with many of the local veterans. While passing the Memorial Hall it was suggested to him that we donated another gun to decorate the grounds, and he stated that he would take this matter up on his return. Sir Arthur is now Chancellor of Montreal University.

A local wit was discussing with some others the victims of Father Time. Someone informed him that the Lord Mayor of London was with the party whereupon he remarked, "Why, the Lord Mayor of London's crowd would not make a vest for the Mayor of Strathmore this morning."

It is stated that turkeys are being stolen from farms between here and Calgary, several cases having been reported to the police from poultry owners should have a sharp watch for nocturnal visitors.

The case tried at the police court on Thursday showed that there is an 1/4 of a difference between Hale and Hall.

The second turnip of the season is on exhibition at the Union Bank. It is 11 1/2 pounds in weight, and is 1 foot in circumference.

The exchange has not been a profitable one for the Greeks, and probably they see the error of their ways now.

Mr. French, Manager, Canada Cement Works, Calgary, and Mr. Gibson, Calgary, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Barry over Labor Day. Mr. J. A. Cowan, C. P. R. Freight Inspector, spent the week-end at the Barry place. Good shot shooting was enjoyed by the visitors.

Mr. J. W. North, of Calgary, was visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wood over the week-end. Mrs. North is one of the real old timers in the province, having come here in 1882.

The municipal district of Bow Valley held their regular meeting on Saturday.

Strathmore school board, at a meeting held on Thursday evening decided to proceed with alterations to the janitor's residence on the school grounds. The work to commence immediately.

Labor has not been any poor plant of this last few weeks. Some local business men have been doing their bit in the harvest field, assisting to get the crop in.

The Greeks Are

Punished

The Greek Army has suffered a total defeat in Asia Minor, and has been driven to the sea by the Turks. So far there has been little news now expressed with the Greeks in their defeat. The general expression is that they are what was expected. Under the leadership of the pro-Greek King Constantine, they kept the war east in a ferment while other countries were endeavoring to lead the wounds of war and attempted to grab off territory in Asia Minor.

Constantine is blamed for the failure of the British expedition to the Dardanelles in 1915. The project was originally planned in February 1915 between Venizelos, the Greek Prime Minister at that time, and the Allies. It was while Britain and France supplied the warships to reduce the Turkish Straits that the Greeks would supply a landing force to hold the peninsula.

The Allies were there with the ships at the time appointed. They reduced forts and landed small numbers of soldiers and marines, who met with little or no opposition, but there were no Greeks to hold the position. When Constantine had countermanded the landing order. The consequences were that the occupation had to be held up until victorious.

We all remember that when the attack was made again the Turks were thoroughly prepared, and though the British and American troops were one of the most brave and bloody in the world's history, the odds were too great. Later on Constantine abdicated, and Greece went in with the Allies, but after the war the Greeks brought him back, and Venizelos had to leave the country.

The exchange has not been a profitable one for the Greeks, and probably they see the error of their ways now.

Canada is interested in Greece to the extent of $25,000,000, having loaned that amount a couple of years ago. Probably much of that money went to outfit the army that has now been so thoroughly licked. If Canada had loaned that money to John Venizelos, he would have been in a position to spend it in peaceful development, and in her own country.

It might be stated that during the war the British troops considered the Turks the richest fighters they had against them. The Turk has many defects, but he is alright as a fighting man.

Mr. J. W. Cope, assistant secretary of the M. D. Bow Valley, is on a month's holidays at High River at present.

Ottawa, Ontario—A remarkable increase in the volume of motor traffic in Canada is shown by returns compiled by the Department of Customs. According to their registration 617,285 automobiles entered Canada to date during 1921, as compared with 54,300 for the previous year.

Calgary, Alberta—The distinction of cutting the first wheat in Alberta this season belongs to Mr. Richardson, of Oyen district, who commenced harvesting on the morning of August 1st.

NIGHTINGALE NOTES

The young people's Bonnet Club met at the home of Mrs. Fox last Thursday evening. In spite of the heavy rain just before the hour of meeting, quite a number were present. It being devotion night, three well known hymns were discussed, i.e., "Saved by Grace" by F. Crosby, "Throw Out the Life Line" by Rev. S. U'cord and "In the Sweet By And By" by Dr. Bennett. After the usual meeting lunch was served and Miss Fox entertained with musical selections. Games then indulged in and everyone had at least one good laugh. We are glad to report a growing interest in our club which has just been organized a few weeks, and we welcome all to our meetings who desire good educational entertainment.

The Wolf Cub, Trail Rangers group, were entertained at a picnic at the sports grounds on Saturday afternoon by the C. G. I. T. Girls' places, games, etc., provided plenty of excitement after which a royal lunch was dished up. Mrs. Mackenzie deserves great credit for her work in getting together such a fine group of girls in so short a time, as now they have quite a lot of public work to do. The boys are coming along fine and at present are taking part in Bible Study and First Aid Training with great zeal.

Mr. Chappel wishes to thank the ladies who have been so untiring in their efforts to furnish and equip the rooms he now occupies above the store. He particularly appreciates the hard work which the ladies accomplished in cleaning and papering operations, and reports things as being quite cozy and comfortable. This is but one instance of the undivided support which has been given him by the people of this circuit in his work. As we continue throughout the year may the same spirit of Christian co-operation prevail and may the Strong Arm uphold our every venture.

SAFETY FIRST

"Safety first" is a good maxim in most things, but particularly so in relation to the investment of money. The rich may afford to speculate and to take the risks attendant on high rates of interest. Those whose means are moderate must be careful to see that there is absolute security in their investments for such people there is no other form of investment which takes such a high rank combining absolute security with liberal interest, as the bonds of the Dominion of Canada. Holders of Dominion bonds bearing five and a half per cent, maturing December 1, 1922, can reinvest their money at the same rate of interest by exchanging the old bonds for new ones running for either five years or ten years, as the bondholder may prefer. Arrangements for carrying out this exchange can be made through all the chartered banks.
